Jurassic East Conference

Saturday 23rd November 2019

A day of talks on the Jurassic of the East of England, 9:30am to 4:30pm

£35 including refreshments and lunch*.

THE TALKS:

The Jurassic & modern geography
Naomi Stevenson (Natural England)

Scelidosaurus, an early & enigmatic dinosaur
Dr David Norman (Cambridge University)

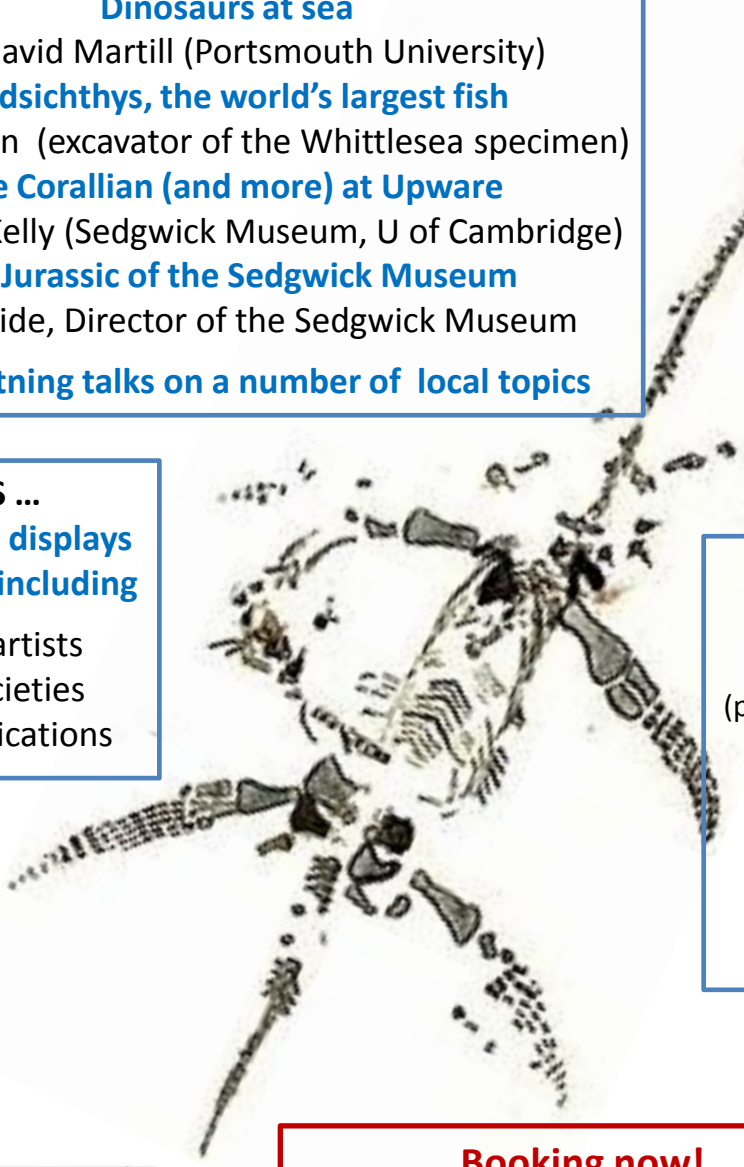
Dinosaurs at sea
Prof David Martill (Portsmouth University)

Leedsichthys, the world's largest fish
Dr Jeff Liston (excavator of the Whittlesea specimen)

The Corallian (and more) at Upware
Dr. Simon Kelly (Sedgwick Museum, U of Cambridge)

The Jurassic of the Sedgwick Museum
Dr Liz Hide, Director of the Sedgwick Museum

Also lightning talks on a number of local topics



PLUS …

Lunchtime displays and stalls, including

- palaeo-artists
- local societies
- GA publications

THE VENUE:

The Aurora Centre, Cambridge

(prestigious new headquarters of the British Antarctic Survey)

- ✓ close to M11
- ✓ ample parking
- ✓ good bus service from train station

GEO EAST
THE EAST OF ENGLAND GEODIVERSITY PARTNERSHIP

Booking now!
For further details and booking information, see www.geo-eastevents.org.uk

With support from

GEOLOGISTS' ASSOCIATION 1858